

Intro

4X    A Bm        A G

[Verse 1]

Bm                    A                    G            A

There must be some kind of way outta here

Bm            A            G    A

Said the joker to the thief

Bm                    A            G    A

There's too much confusion

Bm            A            G    A

I can't get no relief

Bm                    A    G                    A

Business men, they    drink my wine

Bm            A                    G    A

Come and dig my Herb

Bm                    A    G                    A

None were level    on the mind

Bm            A            G    A

Nobody out of this world hey

Solo

4X    Bm    A        G    A

Verse 2

Bm                    A            G    A

No reason to get excited

Bm                    A                    G    A

The thief he kindly spoke

Bm                    A                    G    A

There are many here among us

Bm                    A                    G    A

Who feel that life is but a joke

Bm                    A            G                    A

But you and I have been through that

Bm                    A            G    A

And this is not our fate

Bm                A                G                A
So let us not talk falsely now

Bm                        A                G                A
The hour is getting late    hey

Solo 2

16X Bm A G A

Verse 3

Bm                A                G                A
All a—long the watchtower

Bm                        A                G                A
Princess kept the view

Bm                                A                G                A
While all the women came and went

Bm                        A                G                A
Barefoot servants, too

Bm                A                G                A
Whilst out in the cold distance

Bm                        A                G                A
A wildcat did growl

Bm                                A                                G                A
Two riders were approaching

Bm                A                        G                A
And the wind began to howl    hey

Outro - Fade Out

8X Bm A G A